FLORENCE REED IN "COWARDLY WAY"

Unique Story by Marc Edmond Jones
Screened at the Lion Today

A wonderful story is told in "The Cowardly Way" a five reel Equitable at the Lion Theater today. Florence Reed, the star, and Marc Edmond Jones, the author, have combined to produce what is without an equal as a screen drama, and added to this, the Equitable's studio has revealed new developments of the photographic art which will be delightful as well as a thrilling surprise. A new light is thrown on Hamlet's famous soliloquy by the development of the play, which touches a new psychological point, aside from its dramatic and artistic appeal.

Coliseum
Schultz's Picnic drew a second large crowd at the Coliseum last night. Stomach's shows are drawing better right along, and the public seems more than pleased with his productions. The play for the last half of the current week is a novelty with all special scenery to give the public a glimpse of Santa Claus' workshop in the land of snow. There will be a snowfall scene in the show that will be a special attraction. A matinee will be given on Christmas day.

Lamara
A return of the famous Vampire actress Theda Bára in her initial American success "A Fool There Was" is scheduled for the Lamara theater where the picture was before shown in this city, today and tomorrow. With a great capable cast headed by Edward Jones, the famous leading man of Paris and New York, and under the direction of Frank Powell, the stage version of Kipling's notable poem has been given new life and form through the masterly acting of Miss Bára, who seems to have all the attributes needed for a successful screen vampire.

The Plaza
The final installment of "The Black Doe" is scheduled for the Plaza today. In this final showing all the threads of the story are gathered up and what has been considered wonderful is simple now. In addition to this Harry Myers great "Prize Story" with beautiful Rosemary Theby will be on the bill with a Nestor Comedy "Tony the won." "Neptune's Daughter" will be on tomorrow.

Matinee at the Arizona
Blanche Sweet, Carlisle Blackwell, Theodore Roberts and James Neill are four names that head the cast for the Lasky-Belasco production of Edward Locke's famous drama, "The Case of Becky," at the Arizona tonight and tomorrow.

Never before has Blanche Sweet been seen in a role similar to the one she plays in this photodrama. When "The Case of Becky" was produced by David Belasco, as a drama, it caused a sensation in the theater-going world. Not since the days of "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" has a story of dual personality been presented to the public. And when the victim of the two-selves is a young girl, especially of Miss Sweet's charm and ability, the announcement that the photodrama will be seen here is one of unusual interest.

Supported by the three splendid artists and the other members of the Lasky-all-star stock company, gives the film version of this sensational play a degree of excellence rarely attained by motion picture productions.

Mesa News Notes

Chestra.
"Come Where the Lilies Bloom"—Mixed double quartet.
"An Old Maid's Soliloquy"—Reading by Miss Ruth Taylor.

"Old Black Joe"—Male quartette.
"The Perfect Day," violin duet—Irma Vance and Melyva Dana.

"Little Grey House Among the Hills"—Edith Trow.

"Love's Old Sweet Song"—Male quartette.

The program was as interesting as the Mutual offerings generally are. It is not easy to select for particular comment any number of the well balanced program, each number being so pleasingly rendered as to possess a charm of its own, though Miss Edith Trow's selection, "Little Grey House Among the Hills," was wonderfully expressive of her really sweet voice. The program showed, behind it all, the fine Italian band of Prof. Wm. Hansen, in both the choice of selections and their manner of rendition.

MESA POULTRYMEN WIN AT TUCSON

At the Arizona State Poultry Show, held in Tucson last week, Mesa poultrymen were prominent amongst the winning owners. Following is a list of the premiums and awards in which Mesa owners figured:

LIGHT BRAHMAS: Edgar LeBaron, Mesa; Cock, 1; hens, 1, 2, and 3; Cockerels, 1, 2 and 3; pullets, 1, 2, 3 and 4, pen 1.

SINGLE COMB WHITE LEGHORNS: W. W. Carney, Mesa; Cocks, 1, 2 and 3; hens, 1, 2, and 3; Cockerels, 1 and 2; pullets, 1, 3, and 4; pen 1.

ROUEN DUCKS: Edgar LeBaron, Mesa; Old ducks, 1, 2, 3, and 4; young ducks, 1, 2, 3, and 4; old drake, 1; young drakelets, 1, 2, 3, and 4.

CHINESE: Edgar LeBaron, Mesa; Cocks, 2 and 3; hens, 2 and 3; (Pearl quills)

The cup offered by the Consolidated National Bank for the best female bird in the show was won by W. W. Carney with a leghorn pullet, a superb did individual bird. In addition to this, Mr. Carney also won the following: The box of cigars offered by the South Avenue Drug company for the best pen of chickens in the show; also the cup offered by the National Bank of Arizona for the best bird in the Meridian classes; and all merchandise specialties offered by merchants of Tucson on single-comb white leghorns.

The white leghorn is, by excellence, the poultry egg-breed of the southwest, and friends of Mr. Carney will note with interest his success against considerable competition. Mr. LeBaron has been a careful and intelligent breeder of fancy poultry for many years, and it would be the exception were he not returned a winner at any show in which he enters his birds.

GIRLS! LOTS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR NO DANDRUFF—25 CENT DANDERINE

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable luster, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as anyone's that has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time.
